Silver Tea Today Will Honor Nuns

Women's Council of the St. Lawrence Martyr Parish is sponsoring the annual Silver Tea honoring the Sisters at the Parish Hall this afternoon from 2 until 4 p.m.

All parishioners are invited to attend the tea to honor the nuns for their outstanding work.

A Book Fair will also be held during the same hours, enabling those attending to purchase paperback books at reasonable prices.

Proceeds will be used for the purchase of audiovisual aids and library books.

varied musical afternoon with violin works accompanied by the piano, a group of solo piano pieces, and music in which the violin and piano play equally important parts.

An unusual treat is in store for Rabinoff audiences this season: Benno Rabinoff will be drawing his prized $3,000 Tourte bow across the strings of a $100,000 Stradivarius — reputedly one of the greatest violins in the world — and once the property of Fritz Kreisler.

Prior to the 3 p.m. curtain time, concert-goers will be greeted in the foyer by Association president, Joseph M. Mardesich, Jr., and members of his 1966-67 board, Messrs and Mmes. Charles Currey, Gerald R. Fagan of Palo Verde Peninsula; Ralph Bushey of Rolling Hills Estates; Dr. and Mrs. Lawrence Weiswasser of Rolling Hills Highlands; Messrs. and Mmes. Robert Resta and Frederick Schmidt of San Pedro, John Gower and Robert C. Lambie will assist at the doors.

Mrs. Byrle Schuck has arranged for the following ushers from San Pedro High School, Albert Alcala, Anita France, Nina Franczak, Susan Fleming, Michellina Galinato and Priscilla Nagy.

Hear Speaker From Braille

Bill Hurst, member of the Braille Institute Volunteer Speakers Bureau, will be guest speaker at the meeting of Xi Zeta Lambda, at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 22, at the Lawndale home of Mrs. Clyde Turville.

Mrs. Bert Whitte, who has been assigned the program titled "Sense of Sight" will introduce the speaker. Mr. Hurst, who lived in North Hollywood, lost his sight in 1961. He enrolled at the Institute where he learned Braille reading and writing, use of the white cane and studied academic and practical courses. Hurst also owns and operates a trucking business.

The November social for Xi Zeta Lambda will be a sewing bee at the home of Mrs. Les Teeters at 8 p.m. on Nov. 30. All members will sew to complete the Christmas tablecloth made of green felt and decorated with colorful Santa helpers. Making the Christmas tablecloth is an annual project for the chapter.

CHRISTMAS DOLLS
Members of the Redondo

Beach Dianas are helping Santa Claus by dressing 15 dolls for the Salvation Army Women's Auxiliary. The dolls will be distributed to children in hospitals for Christmas gifts.

Mrs. John Richards, Youth chairman, said that the dolls will be completely dressed from head to toe, including shoes and socks.

These dolls will be on display at the Salvation Army 9th Annual Doll Tea, Dec. 7, 2 to 6 p.m. at the Salvation Army Hall, 125 Beryl St., Redondo Beach.

The Dianas are affiliated with the California Federation of Women's Clubs, Marina District, Junior Membership.

LAW AND CITIZEN
The Honorable Judge William B. Keene of the Mental Health Department of the Superior Court, Los Angeles, will speak at a meeting of the Manhattan Beach Branch of the American Association of University Women on Thursday evening, Dec. 1. The meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Donald Gantner, 2601 Pine, Manhattan Beach.

Judge Keene will speak on the laws regarding commitment and release of citizens from mental institutions.
